- Laundry, telephone, additional meals and drinks, and any other expenses of personal nature.
- Medical expenses for injuries and illness.
- Travel and accommodation costs between arrival/departure and the start and end points of the itinerary.

5. Revision of Travel Service Content

The Company may, after conclusion of the Travel Contract, revise its contents and services for any of the following reasons: natural calamity or disaster, weather conditions, civil unrest, suspension of services rendered by transport/accommodation facilities, provision of transportation not based on the original operational plan, governmental orders, or other circumstances beyond the Company's control. The Company reserves the right to take necessary measures when safe, smooth tour operation in accordance with the itinerary is deemed impossible, or when there is valid reason to believe that the tour cannot continue. In such cases, the Company must explain in a timely manner its inability to function according to the Travel Contract under the circumstances. However, said explanation may be made after revisions are made when conditions demand.

6. Liability of the Company and Exemptions

- In performing its obligations under the terms of its Tour Contract, should the Company cause damage to the client through willful negligence or fault, the Company shall be liable for such damages. However, this only applies if the damage report is made within 2 years reckoned from the day following the occurrence of the damage.
- The Company shall compensate for damage to baggage as stated above, provided that said damage is reported within 14 days counting from the day after the occurrence, up to a maximum of 140,000 yen per person. Not applicable when damage is caused intentionally by the Company or through serious negligence.
- The Company shall not be liable for damages incurred by clients as stipulated in Clause 1 hereinabove if any of the following reasons apply:
  - Natural disaster, war, civil unrest, and alteration or cancellation of tour itinerary due to such causes.
  - Accidents during transportation or accommodations, damage by fire.
  - Cessation of services related to transportation or accommodation facilities, and tour itinerary alteration or cancellation owing to such causes.
  - Orders of either Japanese or foreign governments, immigration regulations, isolation resulting from infectious diseases, and tour itinerary alteration or cancellation owing to such causes.
  - Accidents occurring during the client's free activities.
  - Food poisoning.
  - Theft.
  - Delays, stoppages, changes of schedule and route in relation to transportation facilities, and tour itinerary alterations and/or shortened stays at destinations owing to such causes.

7. Liability of Clientot

The Company shall require the client to indemnify the Company for losses sustained owing to a client's willful negligence, fault, conduct against public order and good manners, or breach of provisions in the Company's Organized Tour Contract.

- The client is required to make every effort to utilize information acquired from the Company and to understand the details of his/her rights/responsibilities as well as the details of tour conditions.
- After the start of the tour, if a client should find that the tour service provided is different from that specified in the tour contract, the client is required to report the discrepancy to the Company or Arrangement Agents for the Company or Tour Service Providers immediately.
- The Company may take necessary measures if a client needs treatment during the duration of the tour due to illness, injuries, etc. In the case the Company is not responsible for the cause of the illness, injury, etc., the client shall bear all costs for said measures and must make the payments by the means and date designated by the Company.
- If the client loses the travel coupons provided by the Company, the client shall bear the cost and charges of all shipping facilities used to reissue said coupons. The fares and changes shall correspond with the rates set by the shipping facilities.

8. Correspondence Contract

When we receive an application from a credit cardholder (hereinafter referred to as a "member") of a credit company we deal with, based on the conditions of "receiving payment of travel charges, cancellation fees, etc., without the signature of the member" (hereinafter referred to as a correspondence contract), the travel conditions are different from the ordinary travel conditions in the following points:

- A contract shall be based on "travel business-related stipulations that are used for conclusion of a travel contract by Correspondence means contract."
- A contract shall be concluded at the time when we consent in the case of application, and when we issue a notification of our consent. At the time of application, information of the "member number, card expiration date," etc., shall be provided.
- A "card usage date" shall be the day of payment or repayment of travel charge, etc. The card usage date for travel charges shall be the "date when a contract is concluded."

9. Recommendation for Domestic Travel Insurance

During travel, injuries may incur large sums of treatment costs or transportation costs. Accidents may also result in claims for damages and compensations in amounts which are difficult to collect from the offender. In order to secure oneself against such cases, we recommend that the customer take out domestic travel insurance of a sufficient amount. For information regarding domestic travel insurance, please consult the sales staff of the shop at which you applied to the tour.

10. Privacy Policy

Company listed in the Sale Office column will use the personal information provided in the tour application forms only for communicating with clients and for arranging transportation and accommodations to provide the services request by the client.
